

Poetry Northwest

2000 Tower Street
Everett, Washington 98201
www.poetrynw.org

Find out what the fall has in store for your favorite poetry-only magazine.

*"The city's raging reds, her bellowing yellows,
her greens, her oranges
are not autumn leaves,
for they don't know the art
of falling."*

Zeina Hashem Beck

From the Photography Issue

Greetings Poetry Northwest Friends, Donors, and Volunteers!

To better communicate with the friends of Poetry Northwest, here is your occasional newsletter to let you know about exciting opportunities for involvement in the Poetry Northwest community, including events around the region, readings and talks, and the publication of new issues of the magazine and special online features.

Your Poetry Northwest update:

- Volunteer Opportunity: Wordstock in Portland, OR on October 15 – 16, 2013
- Volunteer Opportunity: SAL Presents Stephen Dunn on October 16, 2013
- Volunteer Opportunity: SAL Presents Dorothea Lasky on November 21, 2013

Seattle Arts and Lectures: Poetry Series

Poetry Northwest will have a table at each of SAL's Poetry Series readings this season. Hosting the table gets you a free ticket to the event and lets you connect with the Seattle literary community. Please contact carrie@poetrynw.org if you'd like to participate!

The Fall Issue Release Reading

On November 14th, Poetry Northwest will present poems from the new issue at Elliot Bay Book Co. (1521 10th Avenue, Seattle), along with Don Share reading from the newly minted The Open Door: 100 Poems, 100 Years of Poetry Magazine.

Fall Social

Poetry Northwest will host a gathering to show off our newest issue and mingle at Naked City Taphouse (8564 Greenwood Avenue North, Seattle), on November 14th at 8PM. Our fall issue features many local poets, such as Ed Skoog, Kary Wayson, Rebecca Hoogs, Erin Malone, Megan Snyder-Camp, Matthew Neinow, and Laura McKee, many of whom will be on hand to read from their work. Music by gypsy-jazz band Mouce Manouche, raffle, and all the usual shenanigans.

Wordstock Festival

Portland not only has Powell's, the world's largest used bookstore, it is also home to the Northwest's biggest literary event: Wordstock. On October 13th-14th Poetry Northwest will have a table at the book fair, and its own stage! If you would like to help staff the table, you will receive complimentary admission to the day's readings. Please email carrie@poetrynw.org for more information!

---

Poetry Northwest encourages the young and the inexperienced, the neglected mature, and the rough major talents and the fragile minor ones. We remain as committed as we were in 1959 to publishing the best poetry we can find, and to expanding the role and scope of poetry in ways both public and private, innovative and traditional, as an art and as a clear and necessary dialogue in a world overrun with noise.

If you're receiving this, you've volunteered for Poetry Northwest before, or expressed interest in doing so. If you don't want to receive this update, just reply with 'unsubscribe' in the subject line.

